Endless Knot / Eternal Knot

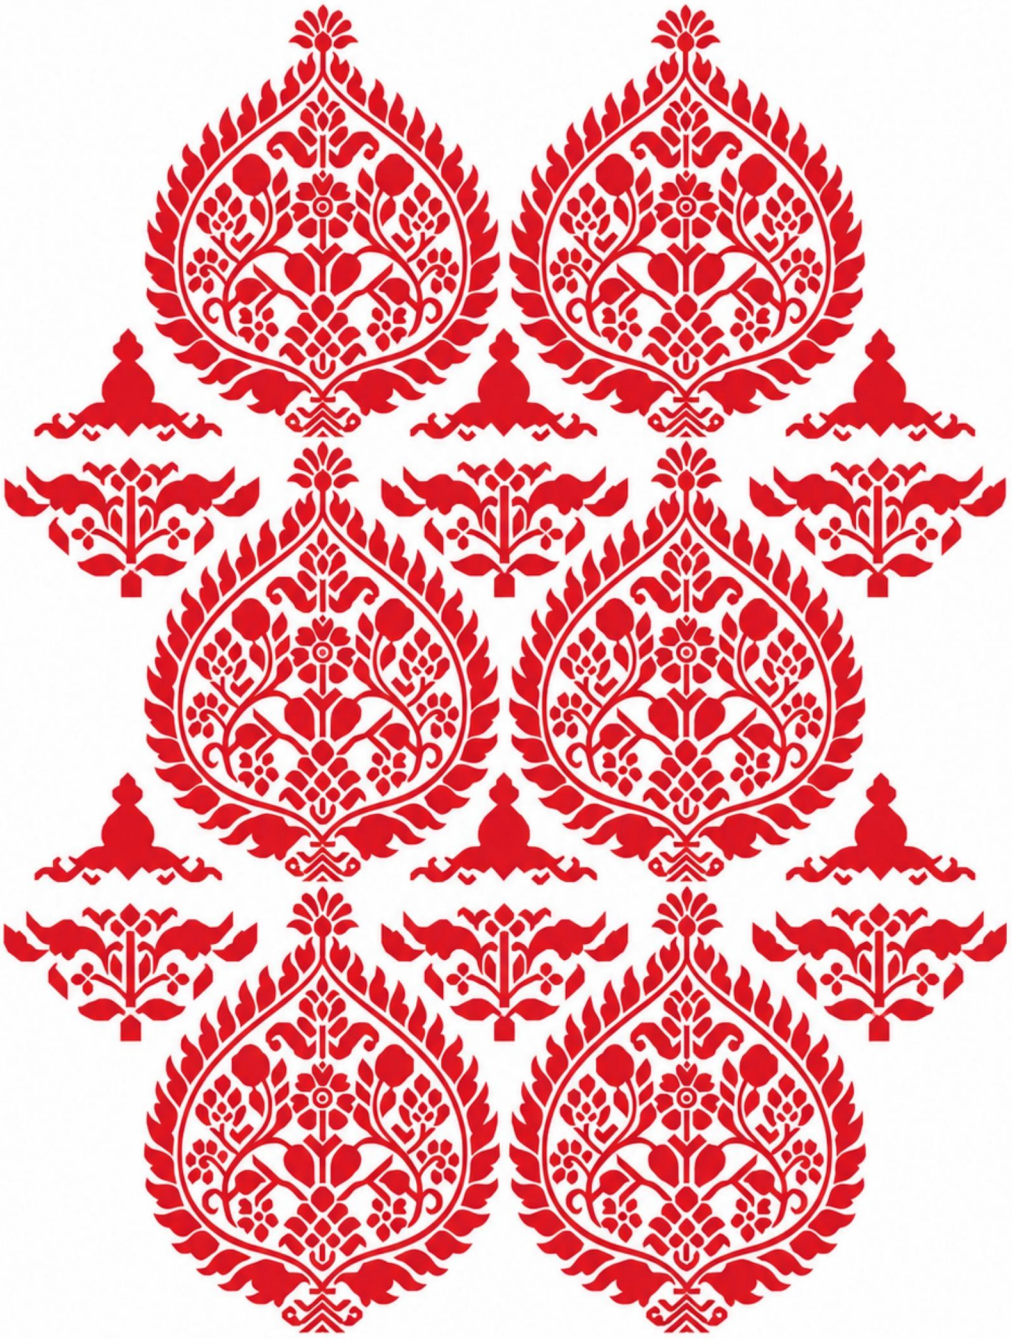

2024

Endless Knot or Eternal Knot is a symbolic knot and one of the Eight Auspicious Symbols found in Asian Culture. It is an important symbol found in Hinduism, Jainism and Buddhism and other cultures of Asia. It is often found in Tibetan Buddhism and the symbol features no beginning or end and is made with a single cord that weaves within itself many times. This auspicious symbol is used to represent endless knowledge and is often used as a bringer of good luck and good fortune.

Litmus Films [India] — Logo
2020

Litmus Films is an independent documentary film production house whose name draws inspiration from litmus paper, which is used in chemical testing to produce observable results. This concept reflects the production house's approach to experimentation and investigation through documentary filmmaking, exploring ideas to arrive at new perspectives and outcomes. The logo incorporates the imagery of litmus paper, with its varying colors and textures, arranged in the shape of a cinematic clapperboard, connecting the experimental nature of litmus testing with the creative process of experimental documentary filmmaking.

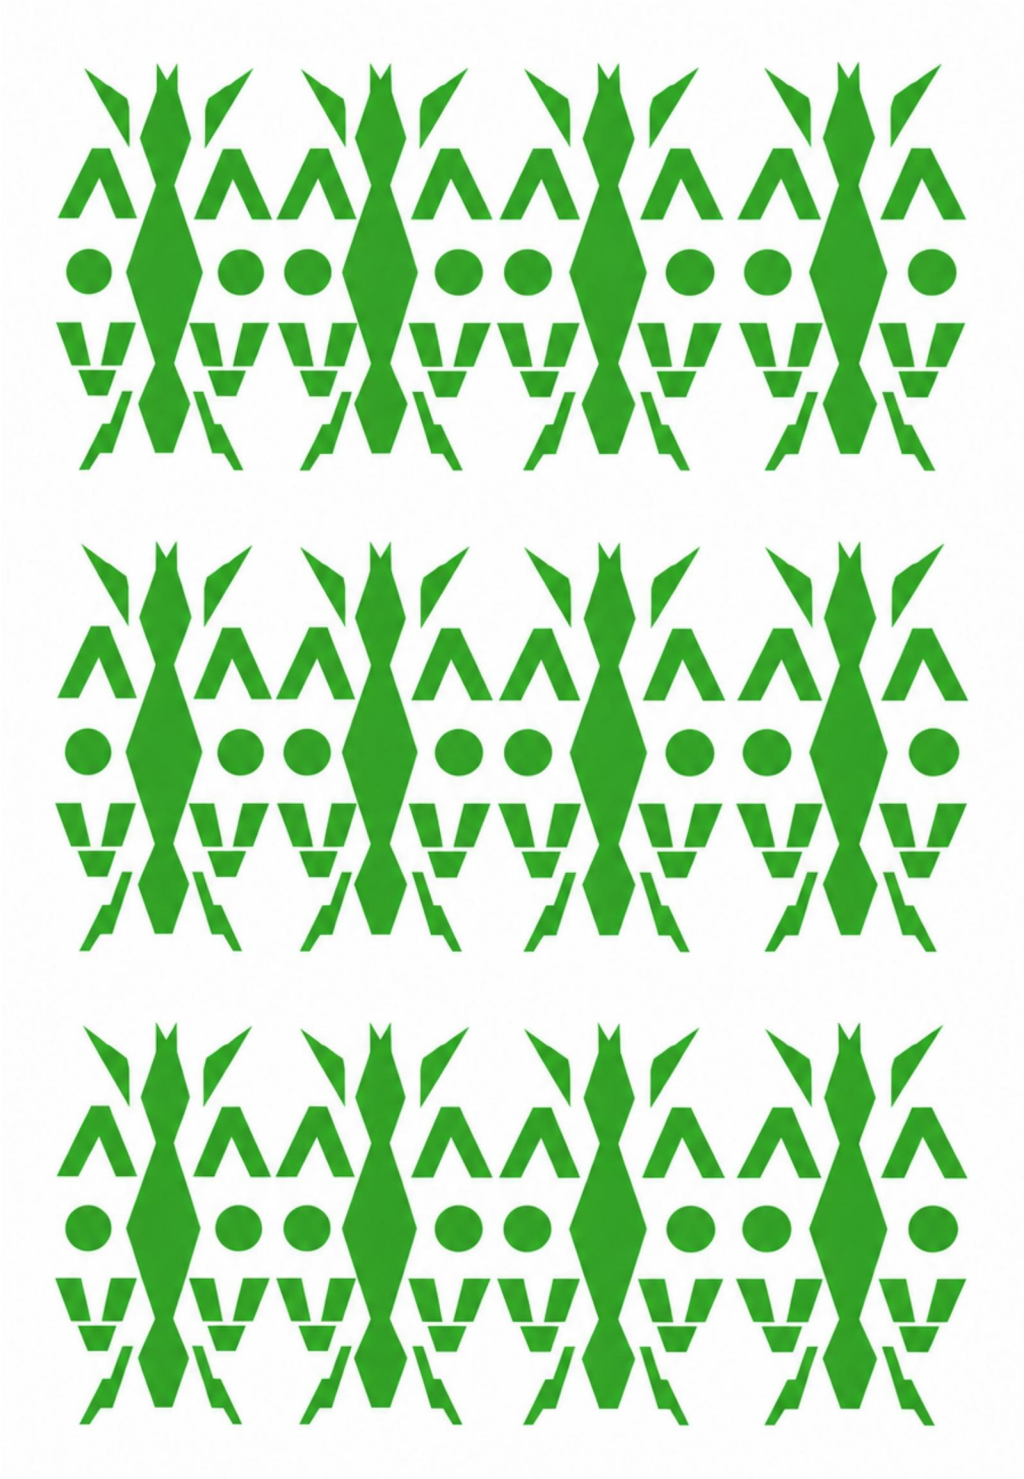

Assamese Gamosa

Traditional Textile Motif Reinterpretation

2020

This design draws inspiration from traditional Assamese Gamosa textile motifs, reflecting the rich cultural heritage and artistic traditions of Assam, India. The intricate floral and geometric patterns have been reinterpreted through digital design while preserving their traditional visual characteristics. The resulting composition serves both as a decorative pattern for contemporary textile applications and as an independent work of visual art rooted in traditional Assamese artisanal craftsmanship.

Naga Textile Motif

Traditional Geometric Pattern Reinterpretation

2020

This design draws inspiration from traditional Naga textile motifs of Nagaland, India, reinterpreting their distinctive geometric patterns through simplified forms, rhythmic repetition, and symmetrical arrangements. While preserving their traditional aesthetic and cultural significance, the design extends Naga weaving traditions into contemporary textile applications and independent visual art.

Konditor Perfumes [USA] — Logo
2021

Konditor Perfumes is a perfume brand that draws inspiration from traditional artisanal methods of perfume making. The logo design is inspired by traditional cane weaving techniques found across Asia, reflecting the craftsmanship and cultural heritage associated with handmade production. The interwoven geometric patterns symbolize the intricate processes involved in traditional perfume making, connecting artisanal traditions with contemporary perfume production.

Goat Cheese Company — Logo
2023

The above logo and name was created by myself for a fictitious Goat Cheese Company. The name was created in reference to the phrase ‘Happy Go Lucky’ and the visual elements were created to conceptualize the product Goat Cheese. Further, other branding elements, marketing collateral, packaging and merchandise was created based on the conceptual visual elements above.

Food Recipe Layout — Infographic
2024

A series of food recipe infographics was created to visually present step-by-step instructions for preparing traditional foods and beverages from India, Morocco and Greece. Each infographic combines illustrated graphical elements, typography, and structured layouts to communicate ingredients, preparation methods, and cooking processes in a clear and visually engaging manner. The designs explore the relationship between visual communication and culinary traditions, transforming conventional written recipes into accessible and informative visual presentations while reflecting the distinctive culinary characteristics of each country.

INGREDIENTS

- 500g (1 lb) lamb shoulder or leg, cut into chunks
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- Salt and black pepper
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 onion, finely chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1-inch piece fresh ginger, grated
- 1/2 cup canned tomatoes (or 2 fresh tomatoes, chopped)
- 1/2 cup chicken or vegetable broth
- 1 cup couscous
- 1/4 cup raisins or sultanas
- 1/4 cup dried apricots, chopped
- Fresh cilantro and mint, chopped, for garnish

PREPARATION

1. In a large bowl, season the lamb chunks with salt, black pepper, cumin, coriander, and cinnamon. Toss to coat the lamb evenly in the spices.
2. In a large pot, heat the olive oil over medium-high heat. Add the lamb in batches and sear until browned on all sides. Remove the lamb and set it aside.
3. In the same pot, add a bit more olive oil if needed. Add the chopped onion, garlic, and ginger, and sauté for 3-4 minutes until softened and fragrant.
4. Stir in the chopped tomatoes and cook for a few minutes until they begin to break down. Return the seared lamb to the pot, then pour in the chicken or vegetable broth. Bring to a simmer, then cover and cook on low heat for 1.5 to 2 hours, or until the lamb is tender and the flavors have melded.
5. In a heatproof bowl, combine the couscous, raisins, chopped dried apricots, and lemon zest. Pour 1 cup of boiling water over the couscous, cover with a lid or plate, and let it sit for 5 minutes. To serve, spoon the couscous onto a large serving platter and top with the tender Moroccan lamb.

DID YOU KNOW?

Traditional Moroccan dishes are cooked in the traditional Tajine pottery, sometimes painted or glazed, which consists of two parts: a circular base unit that is flat with low sides and a large cone- or dome-shaped cover that sits on the base during cooking. The cover is designed to return all condensation to the bottom.

SPANAKOPITA σπανακόπιτα

— GREEK SPINACH PIE —

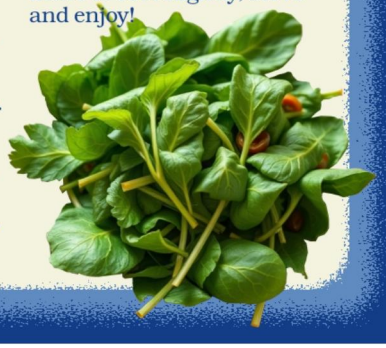

INGREDIENTS

- 500g ready-made phyllo pastry follow instructions for defrosting
- 2lb (1kg) spinach, stalks removed, coarsely chopped
- 1 cup (30g) fresh dill finely chopped
- ⅔ cup (25g) chervil or/ and fresh parsley chopped
- 8 chard leaves and mint stalks removed, chopped
- 1 cup (7 to 8) whole spring onions or/and 2 leeks (only the white stalk) finely chopped
- 2 large eggs
- 2 cups (300g) feta cheese, crumbled
- ¼ cup (50ml) olive oil
- Pepper freshly ground

PREPARATION

1. Rinse the fresh spinach thoroughly, then cut and discard the tougher ends of the stems. In a colander, massage the fresh spinach leaves with a good sprinkle of salt. Rinse well, drain and then gently squeeze out the excess water. Alternatively, blanch the spinach for 1 minute, drain and squeeze out excess water and set it aside to cool.

3. Place the spinach in a large bowl, add olive oil, and stir until all ingredients (spinach, herbs, eggs, feta cheese, and pepper) are well combined.
4. Heat the oven to 200°C / 390°F. Brush the bottom and sides of a 14-inch (38cm) round baking pan (*5) with olive oil, then line the first phyllo and brush it with olive oil. Repeat with the following 2 sheets by placing one on top of the other and brushing each sheet with olive oil.
5. Spoon in the filling and spread it evenly on top. Cover with the remaining 3 sheets always brushing each one. Roll up the overhanging phyllo neatly around the pan to make an edible rim. Score into 12 to 14 pieces or into any desired portion size. Brush the top with the remaining olive oil.
6. Bake for 50 minutes to 1 hour until golden brown. Leave to cool slightly, serve and enjoy!

YOUR WINDOW TO THE WORLD

Trishna Airlines

Conceptual Brand Identity and Logo Design

2025

A conceptual brand identity and visual design were developed for a fictitious airline named Trishna Airlines, with “Trishna” meaning “Desire” in Hindi. The logo incorporates traditional Mughal floral motifs within an emblem resembling a window, combining cultural heritage with contemporary visual design. The slogan “Your Window to the World” complements this imagery, symbolizing opportunities to explore new destinations, cultures, and experiences. Together, the logo, brand name, and slogan establish a cohesive visual identity that reflects the desire for travel and exploration, presenting the airline as a gateway to the world.

Trishna Airlines
Advertising Design and Copywriting
2025

Short advertising copy, consisting of concise promotional text, was developed for Trishna Airlines, drawing inspiration from the meaning of “Trishna” (Desire) and the slogan “Your Window to the World.” The advertisement features Kathmandu, Nepal, as a travel destination, with the copy exploring the relationship between personal aspirations, the pursuit of dreams, and the desire to travel. The visual composition incorporates a rounded rectangular frame resembling a window, reinforcing the airline’s slogan and creating a conceptual connection between the written message and visual design. Together, the copy and imagery present travel as an opportunity to pursue personal desires and explore the world.

Digital Thangka / e-Thangka
Buddha Shakyamuni
Face Detail
Digital — A0 Paper Size — 2025

A Thangka is a traditional Tibetan painting created on fabric using mineral pigments, an artistic practice preserved for centuries across Tibet and the Himalayan region. Traditionally depicting Buddhist religious iconography, Thangkas are known for their intricate details and symbolic imagery. Inspired by this tradition, I created a Digital Thangka depicting Buddha Shakyamuni using the vector-based graphic design software Inkscape. Developed at A0 size over several months, the artwork involved numerous digital layers, intricate details, and color gradients to replicate the visual qualities of traditional hand-painted Thangkas. This work explores the adaptation of traditional Tibetan religious art into a contemporary digital medium while preserving its distinctive artistic and iconographic characteristics.

Eco-Restoration [Slovenia] — Logo
2026

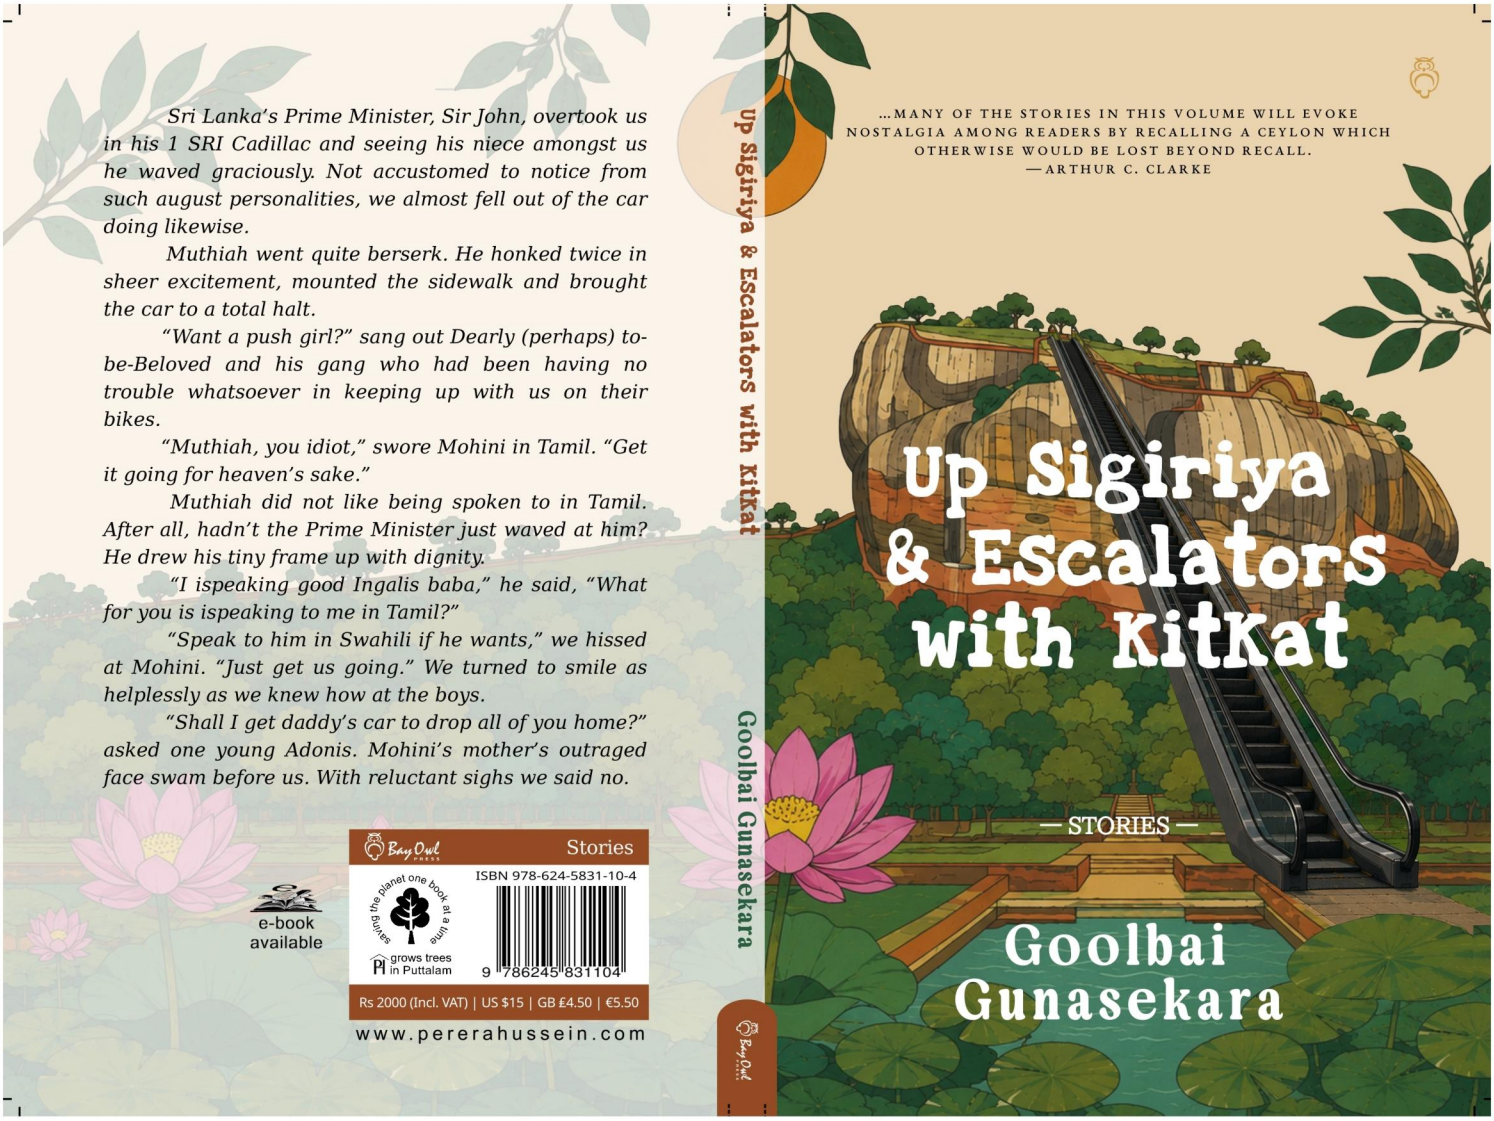

A logo was designed for Eco-Restoration, a Slovenia-based company specializing in permaculture, landscape restoration, and sustainable landscape development. Drawing inspiration from traditional Chinese and Japanese ink calligraphy, the logo incorporates a stylized tree created using expressive, calligraphic brushstrokes. This approach combines traditional East Asian artistic techniques with contemporary graphic design to establish a distinctive visual identity reflecting the company's commitment to ecological restoration and environmental sustainability. Designed for versatility, the logo is suitable for a wide range of applications across both digital and print media.

Flexi Pack Global [Sri Lanka] — Logo

2026

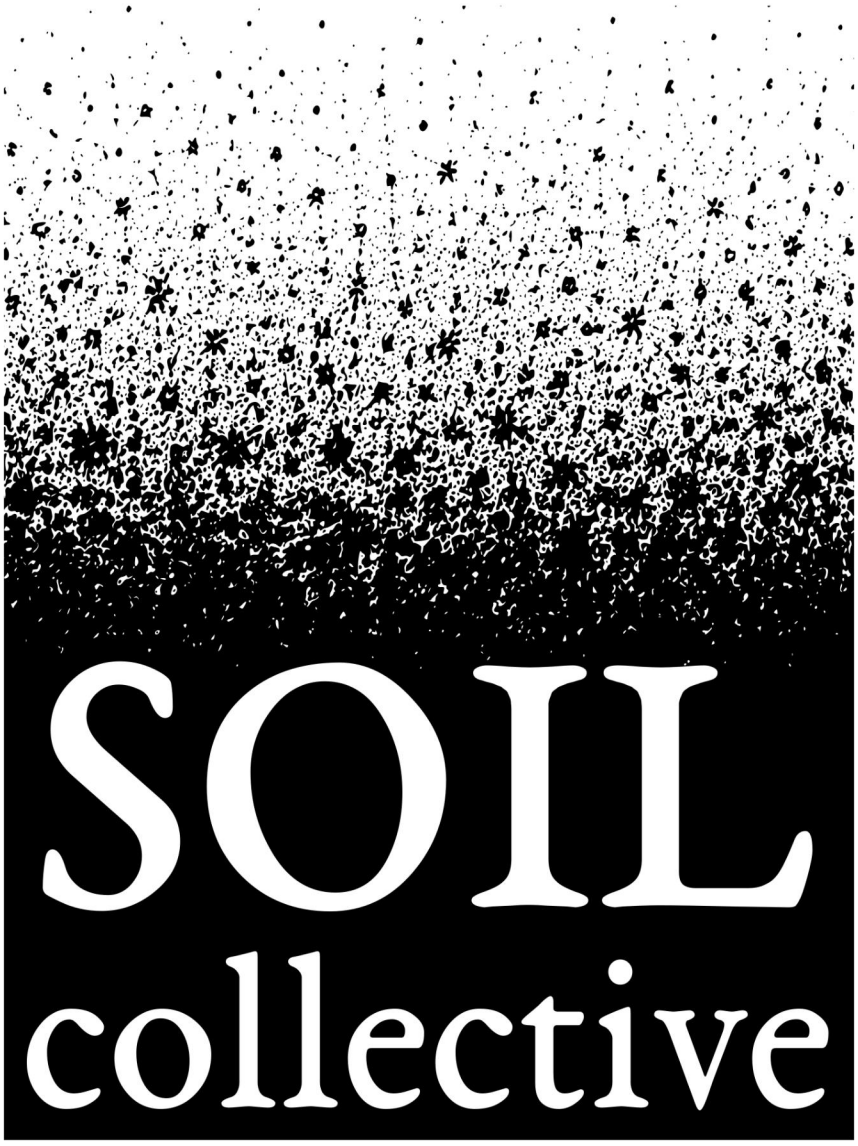

A logo was designed for Flexi Pack Global, a Sri Lanka-based company specializing in flexible packaging solutions for food-grade liquids and non-hazardous liquid chemicals. The logo was developed to establish a distinctive and recognizable visual identity that reflects the company's focus on flexible packaging solutions. Designed for versatility, the logo is suitable for a wide range of applications across both digital and print media.

'Up Sigiriya and Escalators with KitKat' Book Cover Design

2026

Designed the book cover for 'Up Sigiriya and Escalators with KitKat' by Goolbai Gunasekara, published by Perera-Hussein Publishing House. The design concept combines the iconic Sigiriya Rock with an escalator, creating a visual interpretation of the book's distinctive title. AI-assisted visual elements were incorporated into the composition, while selected logos were manually recreated and adapted to complement the overall design. The final cover artwork was developed in close collaboration with the publishing house.

SOIL Collective [Assam, India] — Logo
2026

The official logo for SOIL (School of Indigenous Living) is a graphic wordmark that integrates typography and imagery into a unified visual identity inspired by the natural composition of earth and soil. Drawing from the structure of soil layers, the design illustrates a gradual transition from densely compacted earth at the bottom to loosely compacted surface soil at the top, achieved through increasing negative space between the layers. The SOIL lettering is incorporated into the dense lower section to maintain legibility and visual prominence. Three logo variations were developed to accommodate light, colored, and dark backgrounds, with flexibility for typographic adjustments across different applications.

Chenrezig
Detail
Digital — Work-In-Progress — 2026

Chenrezig is the Tibetan name for Avalokiteśvara, the bodhisattva who embodies infinite compassion in Mahāyāna and Vajrayāna Buddhism. One of the most significant and frequently depicted sacred figures in traditional Tibetan Thangka painting, Chenrezig is often referred to as the “One Who Looks with Compassion.”

This digital artwork is currently a work in progress, created through vector-based line drawing using the graphic design software Inkscape. The drawing of the figure, including the body and garments, has been completed through the meticulous construction of vector lines to capture the intricate details of traditional Thangka painting. The next stage involves applying color to the figure, followed by the development of the background and its accompanying decorative elements.
